the Waesland. A Farewell Reception Given by the Student Body in the University

Triangle-Ellis Ward Hopes to Secure the Grand Challenge Cup. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.-The iniversity of Pennslyvania's Henley crew was given an informal reception in the triangle this morning by the student body. The members of the crew then went to the Washington Avenue wharf and lashed W. Gaynor, Benjamin D. Greene, and B. their two shells to the deck of the steamer H. and W. T. Gaynor, who are under bail to appear in August next before the Unit- were unwilling that the rowing machines upon which the men will practice should be fastened to the deck until the vessel is:

under way. The crew had an early lunch at the Hotel Pellevue and then entered carriages for the steamer. Benind them marched 1,000 students, who gave the oarsmen a magnificent ovation. The following men made up the party: Allyn, Davenport, Eisenbrey, Zane, Jackson, Kuhnmueneh, Cox, Smith; Mr. Leboutillier, the manager; Reginald W. Hart, Treasurer of the Henley Committee; Ellis Ward, the coach; Mr. Fleckwir, the captain; John Gardiner, W. Gardiner, Crowther, and Joe, the colored attendant.

Ail Pennsylvanians believe the crew will. at last lift the grand challenge cup. Mr Ward announced during the morning that in its trials the crew had equaled the record for the Henley course. He continued: "I am very well pleased with the prospects of the eight. They have trained faithfully and are the fastest crew I have ever had. If they are not knocked out by the sea voyage and English climate, I think they should win." Mr. Fleckwir said: "We leave America full of hope. We are in great shape and trust to bring back that cup. We do not want to talk, but we hope to make our actions speak for us in the Henley race.' All the members of the crew were equally hopeful, and responded gaily to cries of "bon voyage," and "success at Henley." The Poughkeepsie crew and freshmen eight led the cheering as the Waesland cast off at 1 o'clock.
